STORYLINES

- Florida State represents the ACC in the inaugural College Football Playoff semifinal held at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., on Jan. 1. The Seminoles won the league for the third consecutive year, the first time they have been back-to-back-to-back ACC champions since they won nine straight conference titles from 1992-2000.
- FSU enters the CFP semifinal on a school- and ACC-record 29-game win streak, which began with a 21-15 win over Georgia Tech in the 2012 ACC Championship Game on Dec. 1, 2012. Florida State is the 14th team to win 29 straight games in college football history and the first team to win 29 straight since Miami won 34 games from 2000-2002. The Seminoles' streak is the second-longest streak this century and the second-longest streak in the last 20 years (Miami - 34, 2000-02).
- Florida State owns six consecutive bowl victories, which is the longest active streak in the nation. The Seminoles will make their nation-best 33rd consecutive bowl appearance against Oregon, a streak that began at the 1980 Orange Bowl. FSU's longest unbeaten bowl streak lasted from 1982-95 when it went 13-0-1 in the postseason.
- The Noles are 27-14-2[^] all-time in bowl appearances, which began with the Cigar Bowl on Jan. 2, 1950, when FSU defeated Wofford 19-6 in Tampa, Fla. FSU's 27 bowl wins are tied for the fourth-most in major college football history.
- FSU completed its ninth 8-0 Atlantic Coast Conference regular season in 23 years of league membership when it defeated Boston College on Nov. 22. FSU's last loss in conference play came on Oct. 6, 2012, at NC State (17-16 loss).
- Florida State is ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press Poll and the Amway Coaches Poll. The Noles have maintained their Top 5 position in the Associated Press poll for 26 consecutive weeks. In its illustrious history, FSU has earned the No. 1 ranking in the AP Poll for 71 combined weeks.
- The Seminoles had a league-high 17 All-ACC selections for the second straight year on Dec. 1 from the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association (ACSM), including 10 First Team selections, which matched the school record set in 1994.
- Florida State ranks among the Top 15 nationally in four offensive and defensive categories: Red zone offense (sixth - 92.6 percent), fourth down conversion defense (eighth - 28.6 percent), passing offense (14th - 299.8 yards per game) and red zone defense (14th - 72.9 percent).
- Roberto Aguayo (Groza), Jameis Winston (Manning) and head coach Jimbo Fisher (Eddie Robinson) are repeat finalists for national awards. On Dec. 10, senior tight end Nick O'Leary was announced as the winner of the Mackey Award. Redshirt senior offensive lineman Cam Erving was named a repeat winner of the Jacobs Blocking Trophy given to the ACC's top offensive lineman on Nov. 30.
- Florida State is 6-0 in road/neutral site games this season, and has averaged nearly 500 yards of total offense (494.8 ypg) and 7.14 yards per play when playing away from Doak Campbell Stadium.
- FSU's matchup with Oregon will be the first time the Noles have faced a Pac-12 opponent under Jimbo Fisher. The Noles are 9-1 all-time against the current set of Pac-12 schools (1-0 vs. UCLA; 3-1 vs. Arizona State; 2-0 vs. USC; 3-0 vs. Colorado).
- Senior wide receiver Rashad Greene has established himself as the ACC's all-time receiving yards leader with 3,771 yards after a two-touchdown, 123-yard performance against Georgia Tech. Greene is FSU's career leader in receptions (264), receiving yardage and consecutive games with a reception (42).

NOTIN' THE NOLES: OFFENSE

GIVEN THE SITUATION...

- Florida State's College Football Playoff semifinal matchup with Oregon puts senior wide receiver Rashad Greene in a situation where he has been very productive this season:
- In six road/neutral site games, Greene has caught 45 passes for 673 yards with four TDs, an average of 112.2 receiving yards per game. Greene has also averaged 7.5 receptions in six games outside Tallahassee.
- Greene has faced four non-conference opponents this season (Oklahoma State, The Citadel, Notre Dame, Florida). Against non-ACC foes, Greene is averaging 106.5 yards per game and 16.38 yards per reception.
- Oregon will be the fourth nationally-ranked opponent for the Noles. In Greene's first three matchups against Top 25 teams (Oklahoma State, Clemson and Notre Dame), Greene is averaging 106.7 yards and has three scores.

O'LEARY WINS THE MACKEY AWARD

- Senior Nick O'Leary was named the 2014 John Mackey Award winner as the nation's most outstanding tight end on Dec. 10:
- O'Leary is the first Seminole to ever win the John Mackey Award, which has been presented since 2000.
- He has totaled 47 catches for 614 yards and seven touchdowns this season.
- The Palm Beach, Fla., native has been a good safety valve for the Noles, generating 10 catches for 208 yards and four TDs over his last three games.
- He is FSU's all-time leader among tight ends in career receptions (113), receiving yards (1,587) and TDs (17) - tied for the second-most ever in the ACC by a tight end.

NOT YOUR AVERAGE FRESHMAN

- Freshman Dalvin Cook continues to impress in his first season at FSU:
- He has emerged as FSU's biggest home-run threat, generating 11 runs of 20+ yards. One in nearly every 14 carries breaks loose for a rush of 20 yards or greater.
- Cook has recorded eight rushing touchdowns this season. The most rushing touchdowns by a freshman in FSU history is nine by Rock Preston in 1994 and Travis Minor in 1997.
- Cook's 905 rushing yards this season are a freshman record, surpassing former RB Greg Allen (888 yards in 1981).

- He is fifth nationally among true freshmen with 5.84 yards/carry, and ninth in total rushing yards among true freshmen despite his 155 carries ranking very low.
- Cook was a driving force in defeating Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship. His 31 carries, which resulted in 177 yards, were the most by an FSU tailback since Greg Jones had 31 vs. Miami in 2002.
- His 144 yards against Florida were the second-most against UF by a freshman (Travis Minor, 167 yards, 1997).

RED ZONE RENEGADES

- One of the biggest strengths of Florida State's offense this season has been their proficiency in the red zone.
- FSU ranks sixth in the nation with a 92.6 conversion percentage in the red zone.
- The Noles have rushed for 21 scores in the red zone and added 12 passing touchdowns inside the 20. Roberto Aguayo has added 17 field goals to give FSU 50 scores in 54 red-zone attempts.
- Against FBS Power 5 opponents this season, FSU has converted 38 of its 42 red-zone chances (90.5 percent).
- Against ranked opponents, the Noles have scored eight of their nine times in the red zone. Senior RB Karlos Williams leads FSU with three scores in the red zone against its ranked opponents.

WELL-EARNED FOR ERVING

- Redshirt senior left tackle/center Cam Erving has proven his immeasurable worth to the FSU offensive line this season:
- Erving became the fourth Seminole to win the Jacobs Blocking Trophy, given to the ACC's top offensive lineman, multiple times. Erving has won the award in back-to-back years.
- The native of Moultrie, Ga., started 38 straight games at left tackle before switching duties to center the last four games, posting the highest O-line grade in his center debut at Miami on Nov. 15.

MR. 400

- Redshirt sophomore quarterback Jameis Winston's 401-yard passing performance at Louisville on Oct. 30 was his second career 400-yard passing game. Winston's other 400-yard effort came at Clemson last season, tossing a career-best 444 yards. Winston is just the fifth FSU quarterback ever to throw multiple 400-yard games in a career:

Rashad Greene's two touchdown catches in the ACC Championship Game against Georgia Tech on Dec. 6 was his fifth multiple-TD game of his career.

10

Senior tailback Karlos Williams continues to lead the Seminoles with 10 rushing scores, his second year of double-digit rushing TDs (11 in 2013).

10

Florida State has out-gained its opponents in total yards in 10 of its 13 regular-season games this season. FSU is averaging 434.7 total yards per game.

FLORIDA STATE FOOTBALL NOTIN' THE NOLES: DEFENSE

P.J. HAS BIG PLAYS ON BIG STAGE

- Junior cornerback P.J. Williams has a knack for making the big play in the fourth quarter on the big stage for the Seminoles.
- Williams was named Defensive MVP of the 2013 BCS National Championship at the Rose Bowl last season after his interception at the start of the fourth quarter sparked FSU to the come-from-behind victory.
- Williams had two pass break-ups and a game-changing forced fumble and recovery in the season-opening win against Oklahoma State at Cowboys Stadium. The forced fumble and recovery came with FSU clinging to a 30-24 lead with five minutes left in the game. Two plays later FSU scored to seal the victory.
- He had a career-best nine tackles and two TFLs versus Georgia Tech in the 2014 ACC Championship Game.

NORTHROP REACHES CENTURY MARK

- Junior linebacker Reggie Northrup leads FSU with 113 tackles. He is the first Seminole in eight years to have 100 tackles in a season - since Buster Davis had 109 in 2006.
- Northrup is a two-time ACC Linebacker of the Week this season and he ranks seventh in the ACC with 8.7 tackles per game.
- The Jacksonville, Fla., native has six games with double-digit tackles, including a game-high 12 stops in the ACC Championship Game victory over Georgia Tech.

EDWARDS JR. DOMINANT IN PASADENA

- Junior defensive end Mario Edwards, Jr. had a then-career-high 3.0 tackles for loss, including a sack, versus Auburn in the 2013 National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl. Edwards had six total tackles against the Tigers and was arguably the best defensive player in Pasadena that night.
- Edwards, Jr. carried that momentum into a stellar 2014 season as he led FSU with 11 TFLs en route to All-ACC First Team honors and Sports Illustrated All-America Second Team accolades.

LEADERS AWAY FROM DOAK

- In six games away from Doak Campbell Stadium, Reggie Northrup is averaging 10.2 tackles per game, while Eddie Goldman has 4.5 tackles for loss.
- P.J. Williams and Jalen Ramsey each have five pass breakups in away or neutral site games this season.

TRUE FRESHMEN STEP UP VS. GT

- With injuries knocking junior defensive tackle Eddie Goldman and junior cornerback Ronald Darby out of the ACC Championship Game, a pair of true freshmen excelled in their first important action of the season.
- Freshman defensive tackle Derrick Nnadi held his own at defensive tackle while helping to fill-in for Goldman, finishing with a career-best six tackles in his eighth game of the season.
- Freshman safety Trey Marshall entered the game when Darby went out in the second half and played up as a hybrid linebacker-safety, tallying a career-best five tackles and making his first career TFL while helping stuff Georgia Tech's rushing attack.

RAMSEY INCREDIBLE VS. 'CANES

- Sophomore defensive back Jalen Ramsey had one of the best games by a defensive player in all of the nation this season in FSU's 30-26 comeback victory at Miami on Nov. 15.
- Ramsey began the game by forcing a fumble on Miami's first play. He ended the game by making an interception on Miami's final play. In between, he had four PBUs, three tackles, 1.0 TFL and a crucial blocked extra point in the first quarter.
- Ramsey's five passes defended versus the Hurricanes are the most by an ACC player this season and tied for the third-most in a single game in the nation this season.
- He was named Bednarik Award National Defensive Player of the Week, Athlon Sports National Defensive Player of the Week and ACC Defensive Back of the Week.
- Ramsey has 11 pass breakups and 9.5 tackles for loss. No Nole has ever had double-digit PBUs and TFLs (dating back to 1981). He has the second-most TFLs of any DB in the ACC.

WE'RE BREAKING UP PASSES

- The Seminoles have 53 pass break-ups this season - tied for the 17th-best total in the nation and the second-best total in the ACC behind Virginia (67).
- Jalen Ramsey has 11 PBUs, which is tied for third in the ACC, while P.J. Williams has 10 PBUs, which ranks tied for sixth in the conference. The pair ranks fifth and seventh in the conference in passes defended per game.
- FSU tallied a season-high 10 pass break-ups against Notre Dame on Oct. 18 and followed that performance with seven pass break-ups at Louisville on Oct. 30.

Sophomore DB Jalen Ramsey's extra point block in the first quarter at Miami was the 30th time a Seminole blocked an extra point all-time and the first since Jacobbi McDaniel accomplished the feat on Oct. 8, 2011 at Wake Forest.

27

Sophomore DB Jalen Ramsey leads FSU's defense with 27 career starts. He has started every game of his career and was the first true freshman to start at CB since Deion Sanders in 1985.

28.6%

The Seminoles have allowed opponents to convert just 28.6 percent of fourth down attempts (6 of 21) this season - the third-best mark in the ACC and tied for the eighth-best mark in the nation.

72.9%

Florida State ranks second in the ACC and 14th in the country in red zone defense (35-48, 72.9 percent), including just 25 touchdowns.

SECOND HALF ADJUSTMENTS

Over the last eight games, FSU's defense has improved in nearly every category after halftime, including in total yards allowed in seven of the last eight games. Florida was the first team to gain more yards in the second half against FSU since Wake Forest did on Oct. 4. The charts below show yards allowed by half with a grey box denoting the lower total.

SEEKING SOD VICTORY NO. 100

- Since 1962 Florida State players have been collecting sod following road victories as underdogs, all games at rival Florida, as well as all ACC Championship and bowl games, and bringing back home to be buried in the "Sod Cemetery." The tradition dates to Dean Coyle Moore's challenge to, "bring back some sod from the between the hedges," prior to the 1962 game at Georgia. The 53-year tradition has continued in 2014, with the Seminoles collecting their 99th "Sod Game" victory over Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship Game. FSU will be seeking its 100th sod victory against Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Here are some of the milestone "Sod Game" victories by season to this point:

WHAT'S AT STAKE

Florida State has the nation's longest current winning streak of 29 games which began in the 2012 ACC Championship. This streak is the longest in ACC history surpassing FSU's previous mark of 17 set during the 1999-2000 seasons and is tied for the 12th-longest win streak nationally. With a win over Oregon in the Rose Bowl, FSU would join Texas (1968-70) in a tie for the 11th-longest streak in NCAA history.

The Seminoles' 29-game winning streak is also the second-longest in the last 20 years, trailing only the 2000-02 Miami Hurricanes who recorded 34 wins in a row.

DARGAN DEFENSE

- Redshirt senior defensive back Erick Dargan has a team-leading six interceptions this season.
- His 12 career picks are tied for ninth in school history.
- Dargan also leads the Ducks in tackles with 82 this season.

MAKERS OF BIG PLAYS

- Oregon has three different receivers that average over 16 yards per reception this season.
- Darren Carrington (17.97), Pharaoh Brown (16.80) and Devon Allen (16.68).

TURNOVER MARGIN

- Mariota has only thrown two interceptions all season and Oregon leads the nation in turnovers lost with eight.
- While the Ducks don't turn the ball over to the other team, their defense has forced 25 turnovers which ranks 25th in the nation. Oregon's +17 in turnover margin ranks third in the country.

Oregon Quick Hits

- Head Coach: Mark Helfrich (2nd season)
- Record under Helfrich: 23-3
- 2014 Record: 12-1
- 2014 PAC-12 Record: 8-1

• The first native Oregonian to head the university's football program in 71 years, Mark Helfrich was appointed the school's 32nd head football coach on Jan. 20, 2013, following a quartet of seasons as the Ducks' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the program's most prolific era in school history. Oregon tallied a 46-7 ledger and four BCS bowl appearances from 2009-12. The transition to head coach has been a relatively smooth one. Six of the assistant coaches who played key roles in the program's trio of conference championships in the past five years remain, as do three of the assistants who have called Eugene home for more than two decades. In guiding the Ducks to a first-year mark of 11-2 and a 30-7 Alamo Bowl triumph over Texas, the number of wins equaled three others for the conference record for success by a first-year head coach as well as surpassed his predecessor Chip Kelly's previous Oregon pinnacle for most wins by a rookie head coach.

• The Oregon spread offense is led by redshirt junior quarterback Marcus Mariota. The Ducks offense ranks third in the nation in total offense, averaging 546.2 yards per game. Mariota can do it all with 53 total touchdowns (38 pass, 14 rush, and 1 rec). One of the most impressive stats is that Mariota has 53 total touchdowns and only two interceptions. True freshman running back Royce Freeman heads the Ducks rushing attack which ranks 20th in the nation. Mariota loves to spread the ball around to multiple receivers, but junior Byron Marshall has been the main target with 814 yards on 61 receptions and 5 touchdowns. Oregon averages an impressive 46.3 points per game which ranks third in the country. The Ducks boast one of the best offenses in college football.

• The Ducks defense is sometimes overlooked just because of how dynamic their offense is, but Oregon allows a mere 22.5 points per game to its opponents which ranks 29th in the country. The Ducks defense has forced 25 turnovers this season (11 interceptions, 14 fumbles) and the ability to get the ball back to their offense has been a big key to their success. Oregon has two players who have 10+ tackles for loss this season, junior defensive lineman DeForest Buckner (12.0) and redshirt senior linebacker Tony Washington (10.0). Making plays behind the line of scrimmage and forcing turnovers are the biggest strengths to this Ducks defense.

• The PAC-12 Champions are the second seed in the first ever College Football Playoff with impressive victories against Michigan State, UCLA, Stanford and Arizona.

All-time vs Current Pac-12 Schools

Florida State is facing Oregon for the first time in program history. It also marks just the 11th meeting between the Seminoles and current members of the Pac-12 Conference. FSU boasts an all-time 9-1 record vs. current Pac-12 teams, including nine consecutive victories:

17 ALL-ACC HONORS FOR NOLES

- Florida State captured 17 All-ACC honors from the media (ACSMA) for the second straight year on Dec. 1, including a school-record-matching 10 First Team selections. Senior wide receiver Rashad Greene, redshirt senior offensive tackle Cameron Erving, senior right guard Tre' Jackson and redshirt sophomore quarterback Jameis Winston were all repeat First Team selections.
- Greene, Erving, Jackson, senior tight end Nick O'Leary and senior left guard Josue Matias all nabbed All-ACC honors (1st, 2nd, 3rd or honorable mention) for the third straight year.
- The 10 first team selections matched a school record set by the 1994 team which included first team selections: CB Clifton Abraham, DE Derrick Alexander, LB Derrick Brooks, RB Warrick Dunn, CB Corey Fuller, QB Danny Kanell, WR Kez McCorvey, OG Patrick McNeil, C Clay Shiver and OG Lewis Tyre.
- Greene (1st Team WR, HM Specialist) and Erving (1st Team OT, 2nd Team C) both captured honors at two different positions, an especially notable feat for Erving who has played just three games at center. Erving also captured the Jacobs Blocking Trophy for the second straight year, which is awarded to the conference's best blocker and voted on by defensive coordinators and head coaches.
- The third annual Coaches All-ACC awards were announced on Dec. 10, with FSU leading the conference with nine All-ACC First Team selections and 17 All-ACC honors overall.
- Three Noles were unanimous All-ACC First Team selections: QB Jameis Winston, WR Rashad Greene and PK Roberto Aguayo.
- Below are the All-ACC awards for current Seminoles with "M" signifying media team and "C" representing coaches team.

Game 13, December 6
(4/2/2) Florida State 37,
(11/12/12) Boston College 35
Charlotte, N.C.

- No. 4 Florida State earned its third-straight ACC Championship and a league-record 15th overall in program history with a 37-35 win over No. 11 Georgia Tech. The Seminoles have now won 29 consecutive games, tied for the 12th longest streak in NCAA history.
- Freshman running back Dalvin Cook earned Most Valuable Player honors as he set career highs in both rushes (31) and rushing yards (177) against the Yellow Jackets. He also posted 43 receiving yards and his 220 yards from scrimmage made him the first Seminole with over 200 all-purpose yards since Rashad Greene recorded 203 against Oklahoma State on August 30, 2014. Cook now owns the FSU freshman rushing record with 905 yards on the ground.
- Senior wide receiver Rashad Greene recorded the 15th 100-yard receiving game of his career and eighth of the season. He finished with seven catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns. Greene passed Duke's Conner Vernon (2009-12) to become the ACC career leader with 3,771 receiving yards.
- Junior linebacker Reggie Northrup led the team with 12 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, marking the sixth time he recorded double-digit tackles this season. He now has 113 tackles on the season, which is the most since 2002 from Michael Boulware (127) and Kendyll Pope (131).
- Redshirt sophomore quarterback Jameis Winston finished with 309 yards and three TDs - all in the first half. He now has 64 career TD passes which ranks second all-time at Florida State.

FISHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Became just the 10th major college football head coach to reach the 50-win mark in just his fifth season after defeating Wake Forest, 43-3, on Oct. 4, 2014.

Guided FSU to its first National Championship win since 1999 and second consecutive Bowl Championship Series victory with a 34-31 victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Vizio BCS National Championship on Jan. 6, 2014 in Pasadena, Calif. FSU finished a perfect 14-0 and ranked No. 1 in both the USA Today Coaches and Associated Press polls for the first time since 1999.

Fisher's 2013 team set a new FBS record for points scored (723) which was previously held by Oklahoma's 2008 team who scored 716 total points. The Noles also set new FSU and ACC records for yards per play (7.67), points per game (51.6), touchdowns (94) and total offensive yards (7,267). The Seminoles' defense led the nation in scoring defense (12.1 points allowed per game) and interceptions (26). The 26 INT's was also an FSU record.

Coached FSU to its third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championship with a 37-35 victory over Georgia Tech on Dec. 6, 2014 in Charlotte, N.C. The Seminoles have won four ACC Atlantic Division titles in five years and with their 15th conference championship, surpassed Clemson for the all-time league record.

Helped the Seminoles to their 33rd consecutive bowl appearance (in 2014) - the longest active streak in the nation and second all-time to Nebraska's 35 - and extended their streak of six consecutive bowl victories (in 2013 season), which also is the longest active streak in the nation.

With 45 victories, he collected more than any previous Florida State coach in their first four seasons. Bobby Bowden registered 34 between 1976 and 1979.

His .853 winning percentage at FSU is the highest winning percentage in ACC history.

Has compiled a 11-1 mark against schools from the state of Florida: Miami (5-0), Florida (4-1), USF (1-0), Bethune Cookman (1-0).

In 2013, he guided FSU to its best home record (7-0) since 1999 and 2000. The Seminoles are 31-4 defending their home turf over his first four-plus seasons having lost just once in their last 20 home games.

Florida State has averaged 37.7 points per game since Fisher became the head coach.

Fisher mentored redshirt freshman quarterback Jameis Winston to the top honor in college football as Winston won the 2013 Heisman Trophy - FSU's third winner (Charlie Ward - 1993 and Chris Weinke - 2000). Winston set an FBS freshman, ACC and FSU record with 40 touchdown passes in a season and led the nation in pass efficiency (184.8). He finished with 4,057 passing yards and is the first freshman in FBS history to eclipse 4,000 passing yards and toss 40 TD passes.

Fisher saw four players win national awards in the last two seasons including Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, Manning Award winner quarterback Jameis Winston, Lou Groza Award winner kicker Roberto Aguayo and Rimington Trophy winner Bryan Stork in 2013 as well as Nick O'Leary earning the 2014 Mackey Award. Stork and Winston also were consensus All-America selections while Lamarus Joyner was a unanimous All-America selection.

Under his guidance the last five seasons, 59 Seminoles have garnered All-ACC honors (first team, second team, third team or honorable mention).

Off the field, 53 Seminoles have received degrees in his four years at the helm of the FSU program.

Has already turned out 25 NFL Draft picks in his first four seasons including five first round draft picks - three coming in the 2013 NFL Draft in QB EJ Manuel (16th overall), DE Bjoern Werner (24th overall) and CB Xavier Rhodes (25th overall). Kelvin Benjamin became the first FSU wide receiver since Javon Walker (2002) to be selected in the first round when he was selected with the 28th overall pick by the Carolina Panthers in 2014.

Put together four straight top 10 recruiting classes including three top five recruiting classes.

CHARLES KELLY DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DBs

- Charles Kelly is in his second season at Florida State and his first as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach after coaching linebackers and serving as the special teams coordinator during the Seminoles' undefeated national championship season in 2013.
- Kelly's defense has helped continue Florida State's program-record 29-game winning streak and is in the top-30 in the country in six different categories.

- Three defensive touchdowns were scored in 2014 with two interceptions (Terrance Smith and Nate Andrews) as well as a fumble return (Reggie Northrup).
- Kelly came to FSU after seven years as a special teams and defensive backs coach at Georgia Tech. The Ozark, Ala., native is in his 20th season as a collegiate coach and also has experience as a defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech (2012), Nicholls State (2004-05), Henderson State (1999) and Jacksonville State (1997-98).

- Dawsey was an integral part of the Seminole football dynasty as a player. His four seasons at wide receiver corresponded with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by FSU. As a player, he was known for his work ethic, accountability, precision route-running, down-field blocking and the ability to rise to the occasion in big games. Those are the same qualities he has instilled in his current group of receivers.

He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach in 1994 with the Seminoles and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture and helped the Seminoles to a pair of national titles in 1999 and 2013.
- In 2014, the defensive front line has been relied upon as FSU has extended its program record winning streak to 29 games. The Seminole defense ranks in the top-30 in the country in six different categories.
- Junior defensive tackle Eddie Goldman has been a beast in the middle, tallying a team-high 4.0 sacks, 8.0 tackles for loss and 35 total stops. - Redshirt junior Terrance Smith earned All-ACC Second Team honors in 2014 after tallying 85 stops, 4.5 for a loss, with two forced fumbles and two interceptions. Smith's 94-yard interception return for a touchdown helped spark the Seminoles to their 24-19 victory over Florida.
- Miller came to Florida State from Minnesota, where he was the assistant head coach and linebackers coach since 2011.
- The Hutchinson, Kan., native has coached seven players that eventually became first round draft picks, six of which came from his time with Miami (Fla.) from 1995-1998.
